Draw a line from the lower case letter on the left to the corresponding upper case letter on the right. The first one has been done for you.

A matching exercise consisting of two vertical columns of letters, each letter enclosed in a teardrop-shaped outline. The left column contains lowercase letters: u, v, w, x, y, z. The right column contains uppercase letters: Y, W, X, Z, U, V. A straight line is drawn from the lowercase 'u' in the first row of the left column to the uppercase 'U' in the fifth row of the right column.
